Here's an article I found about a family going to a church they hadn't attended before. Make sure this isn't ERCC.

Phillip Walton

I packed a lot of goals into that morning.

The three of us wandered through the lobby, past some comfortable-looking couches and toward the sanctuary. A few greeters reached out to shake our hands, but the greetings seemed perfunctory. Most of the people in the lobby seemed locked into conversations with friends.

As we sat in the sanctuary waiting for the service to begin, I began to wonder if this had been such a good idea. Our chairs were way too close to each other for Western comfort. Every time Anna wiggled, her chair squeaked against the floor. David, bored but trying to sit still, asked to look through the bulletin that had been given to me as we entered the sanctuary.

We made it through the worship service, but the hour wasn't memorable. I admired the beautiful blue stained glass windows stretching two stories up the front of the narrow sanctuary. I was tickled with the way a video of the children sitting on the floor at the front of the sanctuary was projected on the walls at the front of the church, so that we could watch as the kids wiggled and responded to the pastor's words. I thought the blue border of the projection matched the stained glass in a tasteful and clever way.

I don't remember anything about the sermon. I do remember that I didn't feel any connection to the place, the words or the people.

At the end of the service, we were asked to stand up and introduce ourselves, a gesture that always leaves me uncomfortable. At the end of the service, I tried to talk with a family with young children Anna and David's ages, but it was clear that this family had things to do, places to take their children and that we were slowing down their progress.

MISSION CORNER: Greetings from Dallas Christian College

Here are some updates:

DCC's reaffirmation of accreditation was successful and worthy of celebration.

ABHE President Brian Smith shared the following:

DCC gives students an opportunity to use their gifts, talents, and desire for serving Christ through Ministry Teams. Students are able to teach Sunday School classes, lead worship, share devotions, give communion meditations, sing, act, share testimonies, and gain experience.

DCC Commencement took place on Friday, May 10th at Compass Christian Church. Approximately thirty-nine students graduated, with four of our graduates using English as a second language.

DCC is hosting an e2 Conference on Sept 21, 2019: A conference for elders and church leaders. Led by: David Roadcup, Jim Estep and Gary Johnson.

DCC is signing up high school students (completed 9th-12 grades) for SALTeens (Singing And Living Truth Teenagers) - it's an opportunity for your students to come to the DCC campus for a week of rehearsal and a week of touring. If you have teenagers who would like a ministry of singing, playing in a band, acting, and technology experience go to www.dallas.edu and check out this opportunity! The dates are June 9-23.

Once again, thank you for your support both financially and through prayer.

June is here and it's time for our summer events to begin. The big event to start us off with is our Vacation Bible School for pre-school and elementary kids. The theme this year is SonRise National Park where kids will learn to use their compass to point to Jesus. There will be lots of cool lessons, songs, games and more. As always this VBS is free! So, invite your friends, neighbors, and relatives because we are going to have a great time. The dates are Sunday-Thursday June 9-13th from 7pm – 9pm. For all the volunteers we are having a set-up day Saturday June 8th at 2pm.

VERSE OF THE MONTH

"Then the man who had received the one talent came. 'Master', he said, 'I knew that you are a hard man, harvesting where you have not sown and gathering where you have not scattered seed. So I was afraid and went out and hid your talent in the ground. See, here is what belongs to you.' "

Matthew 25:24-25

QUOTE OF THE MONTH

"God is calling each of us to a life of adventure. With adventures some risk may be involved. Are we willing to take risks in our walk with Jesus? Are we willing to look a little foolish from time to time as we seek to develop new talents? If we are, God will continue to bring us new opportunities of service.

The warning of this parable is this: God holds us responsible for our lives and what we do with them.

The joyful reward is this: One day we will stand before our great God and hear Him say, 'Well done, good and faithful servant!' (Matthew 25:21)
