Don't miss out on the great things we've got going for December!

- The Ladies Tea at Sylvia Rodriguez home on December 10th at noon, is for all ladies girls!
- Also on the 10th is our Christmas Play. Elaine Walton is directing it and our Christmas plays are always fantastic! 6pm / Refreshments after
- Join us on Wednesday December 20th for our Christmas Caroling. Leave ERCC at 6:45 pm, return to refreshments by 9pm.
- Candlelight Service 6pm-7pm on Christmas Eve. Wonderful time of singing together!
- Also in December is our Workday on the 19th, 9a.m.

This year may not have been all you wished for you or your loved ones.....But.....you can end the year with renewed commitment to Christ. Our lives in Christ are a marathon not a sprint. In God's Word He always values faithfulness in His people above all other virtues.

If you are feeling like you let God down this year or you feel you could have been closer to Him than you were, don't lose heart. He is in charge of the outcome of your life, you are responsible for everyday-every-year faithfulness to Him. Satan would love to discourage the people of God and have them believe his accusations of failure and unworthiness. His goal is to keep you from joy and faithfulness.

Our joy is centered in God's success at redeeming sinners like us! He is the Savior, we are the saved, the object of His love. Christmas shouts that His plan is working. God knows what He is doing, so trust Him. Rejoice in Him. Sing a Christmas carol (Joy to the World) right now!

VERSE OF THE MONTH

“And Jesus grew in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and men.” Luke 2:52

QUOTE OF THE MONTH

“Wisdom comes when we examine the experiences God gives us and discern what we have (or should have) learned. Nothing that has happened to us should be wasted (Romans 8:28). Because it is sometimes painful, often we do not take the time or effort to discover the reason for the “gift” of our personal experiences. When we do not learn as we should, we stop growing until we learn those same lessons through another experience tailor-made by God to make us mature. (James 1:2-4) Most often we gain insight into our experiences only after earnest, persistent prayer. ”

For the end of the year I hope everyone is able to have a Merry Christmas. Take time to remember the blessing God has given you this past year and look forward to helping him build His kingdom in the upcoming year. Sunday December 10th at 6 pm the church is putting on our annual Christmas play, this years' play is called, “The Christmas Dream Team Parade”. It will be a fun time for all, so bring your family and friends and show your support for all those involved in the program. We will also be going Christmas Caroling on the 20th; if you haven't been before, I highly encourage you to come and try it out.

Until next year, God Bless, Cody Walton

MISSION CORNER:

CHAPLAINCY ENDORSEMENT COMMISSION

The Chaplaincy Endorsement Commission (CEC) provides Christian Church endorsement for ministers who want to serve as chaplains. Chaplains endorsed by the CEC serve in the US military, prisons, police and fire departments, hospitals and hospice programs, and in Veteran organizations. Endorsement is a requirement for chaplains to serve in these organizations, because it proves that the chaplain is a qualified candidate in good standing with the Christian Church.

In addition, the CEC represents chaplains at the national level to ensure that chaplains can freely speak out about their faith and practice their religion.

Your generous tithes and offerings support Christian Church chaplains as they serve around the world sharing the good news of Christ.
