APRIL 2018
VOLUME 25

ISSUE 4

I want to encourage you to read Psalm 73. It is a very open admission of envy of the wicked rich. It is also a cure for envy. In it the writer says, "as for me, my feet had almost slipped; for I envied the arrogant when I saw the prosperity of the wicked."

He then states that they are, "...always carefree, they increase in wealth" and then draws the conclusion that keeping one's heart pure is a waste of time, "Surely in vain I have kept my heart pure." Maybe you haven't felt exactly like that but the apparent blessing of the wicked and the suffering of the righteous has always been a problem for God's people.

That problem bothered the Psalmist, "till I entered the sanctuary of God; then I understood their final destiny" ("How suddenly are they destroyed").

The lessons from this Psalm are clear: 1. Don't envy the rich or the wicked. 2. We are often fooled by the temporary circumstances of life. 3. It's the "final destiny" issue that defines life, not riches or any other temporary blessing. 4. Our thinking can be a form of betrayal of our values and our confidence in God's wisdom and justice. It is also a form of betrayal of God's people who are holding tightly to His Word. "If I had said, "I will speak thus" I would have betrayed your children."

Live your life the solid rock of God's Word. Let it saturate your thinking and dreaming and your evaluation of earthly circumstances.

April Events:

8th – Joel Khopang in morning service and Potluck Dinner following

20th – Game Night for Everyone! Join us for a fun evening in the Fellowship Hall

21st – Workday 9 a.m.

I am having an operation on April 12 to remove the cancerous tumor and the saliva gland in my right cheek. It will be a five-hour operation. I'm not sure how many weeks it will take to heal before I can talk a lot (make a joke). Pray for me and my caregiver (Jane).

VERSE OF THE MONTH

"One of the criminals who hung there hurled insults at Him.

"Aren't you the Christ? Save yourself and us!"

But the other criminal rebuked him. "Don't you fear God," he said, "since you are under the same sentence? We are punished justly, for we are getting what our deeds deserve. But this man has done nothing wrong."

Then he said, "Jesus, remember me when You come into your kingdom." Jesus answered him, "I tell you the truth, today you will be with Me in paradise."

Luke 23:39-43

QUOTE OF THE MONTH

"As the God-Man hung above them, praying for them, He loved them with the kind of love that could have healed them on the spot!

"Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing.

Luke 23:34

Down from His cross poured redemptive love in quantity enough for the whole human race. Enough for you. Enough for me. Far from decreasing because of our behavior against Him, it seemed rather to increase. The same situation still exists today and will exist as long as the earth stands."

First I would like to give a big thanks to all who attended and supported our

St. Patrick's Day fundraiser. The youth raised over $560 for their CIY summer trips, which is a huge help in covering the cost.

We also had a great turnout for the church workday and got a lot of jobs done.

You should also look forward to our Easter events on April 1st and our game night April 20th.

MISSION CORNER:

North Burma Christian Mission

North Burma Christian Mission (NBCM) plants churches, runs orphanages, and operates schools in Southeast Asia. While it began its missionary efforts in Burma, NBCM has since expanded its mission to include Thailand.

Mission leader Joel Khopang and his wife Marilyn regularly travel through the Thailand and Burma regions to spread the Gospel through their music ministry, teaching, and through the edifying and encouraging of their planted churches and schools.

More recently, Joel translated the Bible into the Anung language, the tribal language he grew up with. The mission had a dedication ceremony where the Bible was presented to a new Anung church in Burma. Please keep this new church in your prayers.
