A big thanks goes to all the adults and teens that helped with Vacation Bible School a few weeks ago! It was great!

A big thank you goes to Rose Reynolds and Mac Biggs for organizing our Red, White and Blue fellowship.

I am currently preaching a series of messages called, “The Jesus Essentials.” The first message was about the Messianic Prophecies and how they establish the authenticity of O.T. and N.T. with their datable predictive prophecy. Next was a message about knowing Jesus’ heart and thereby finding out who Jesus really is. By that I don’t mean just a list of facts about Him, I mean what was on His heart.

From my standpoint of Pastor/Preacher/Teacher, I realize more and more that our perception of the things of God and of God Himself are dependent on our heart’s attitude towards Him. The heart that is open to anything and everything God has told us about in His Word is the heart that will grasp the heart of God as best humans can. The heart that is looking for rules to keep or something to add to a list of facts will never see the heart of God, it will only listen for externals and will never be captured by the love of God who loves us beyond comprehension.

Maybe you, dear Reader, need a time of self-reflection when you can question yourself about the quality and kind of relationship you have with the One who was crucified for you. Ask your heart questions like this; Is my heart’s deepest desire to know God better and better; Am I going through motions religion so that God will approve of me; Do I rest in His acceptance of me because He is gracious or am I looking for things to do so He will accept me?

Welcoming the heart attitude of Jesus into your life will put your questions and striving and lack of peace to rest. The place of peace is near the heart of our Savior.

VERSE OF THE MONTH

“When she poured this perfume on My body, she did it to prepare Me for burial.”

Matthew 26:12

QUOTE OF THE MONTH

“... her gift and her basis for giving it were not understood even by these special men, the leaders of the early church. But Jesus understood. He appreciated her outpouring of love and made a promise like no other in Scripture.

Christ said, “Wherever this gospel is preached throughout the world, what she has done will also be told, in memory of her.”

(Matthew 26:13)

Summer is always an exciting time for the Youth here at ERCC. First, I would like to give a big thank you to all that helped at our VBS last month. It was very successful, and the kids had a lot of fun learning about Jesus. Coming up this month I ask that you pray for our high school students as we go to Arkansas for CIY. CIY conference is a special time that really enriches our students understanding of God, Jesus and what it means to be a Christian. Look forward to early August where we will have a Youth Sunday to show videos, pictures and testimony from all these events.

MISSION CORNER: Niños de Mexico

Dear friends, do you realize how many ways your support blesses the Ninos children?

Your giving provides so much more than the basics of a roof over their heads, food in their tummies, and clothes on their backs. YOU are blessing the children with many other opportunities. They are given a great education, time to participate in sports, and the chance to explore their country.

This Spring break:

1. Two of the homes went to visit the beaches in Acapulco.
2. One of the homes spent a couple of days in a water park a few hours away
3. A couple of families went to a neighboring city to spend a few days seeing the sights, visiting an amusement park, etc.
4. Another family went swimming in a nearby pool and visited a circus

Thank you for blessing the children in SO MANY WAYS!!!

Sincerely, Steve Ross, Executive Director

We at Evers Road Christian Church can be proud that we are a part of this wonderful ministry to these young people that otherwise would have no place to live or at least have a place that is safe, warm, loving, and devoted to sharing the message of Jesus!

Thank you, Dale Burmaster
