God Came! God Spoke! God is with us!

The church is a community. It is a group of people drawn together by the common bond of faith in Jesus Christ as the Son of God, Savior. The church is not about the individual, it is about the Savior and the people of the church living out the reality of their faith in Him. While the church is not about us as individuals; we, as individuals, are the living stones that God uses to build His Church.

Will you reflect on the above statements this month as we participate in the celebration of Jesus' birth? The angels told the shepherds, "Unto you is born this day, in the city of David, a Savior who is Christ the Lord." In one sense we are still repeating the story as the angel told it. He is still Savior and people still need to hear it! That's part of our job description as Christians. That's the job of the community of believers. Are you a part of the community or just a drop-in, visitor or occasional auditor?

Consider your place in the church and your importance and the affect you have on the community as a whole by the way you live and relate to the rest of the church. Merry Christmas, Phillip

We had a wonderful Thanksgiving meal! Thank you to all of you who brought such delicious food. Thank you to those who set up and later cleaned up and put everything away. And Thank You to our decorators, the table decorations were beautiful!

MISSION CORNER: OZARK CHRISTIAN

Following information taken from a letter from OCC President:
Matt Proctor - 8-2019

Luckner, born into a preacher's family in Haiti is the third of nine children.

"Growing up, life was very difficult," he says. "In Haiti, preachers don't get paid.
You just do it because you love Jesus. So feeding nine children was not easy." He dreamed of an education, but school was miles away and required tuition. "We didn't have money for tuition but if you recruited five paying students, the school gave you a scholarship. So I found other students." He walked hours back and forth to school each day. Luckner smiles, "I made it all the way through my senior year.
Since childhood, my dream was to preach Jesus. As John 15 says, I want to be a productive branch for the Lord." He applied to OCC's International Student Grant and then prayed hard. "I contacted Ozark, explained my passion for ministry, and I was accepted!" Luckner moved in with a host family and began working for OCC's custodial crew for living expenses.
(Though he only makes minimum wage he sends much of it to his family in Haiti.)

Language was a challenge but he worked hard and his English is now outstanding.

Luckner is already building a team. He recruited his cousin Vladimir Louis-Jeune, a medical doctor, and his friend Sadrac Bathard, a counseling major, to come to Ozark. Both men are current OCC students getting a biblical foundation to serve their countrymen.

Luckner is trusting in the Lord.

Please pray for Luckner, Vladimir, Sadrac and all our international students.

Merry Christmas! This time of the year we have a bunch of activities here at ERCC including our Christmas play, caroling and candlelight service.

Make sure to check the calendar for the dates & times.

Also, this month we will be releasing the information for our mid-winter retreat for February. Our mid-winter retreat is for middle & high school students and this year's retreat is going to be really special and you won't want to miss it.

VERSE OF THE MONTH

"And God is able to make ALL grace abound to you, so that in ALL things at ALL times, having ALL that you need, you will abound in every good work."

2 Corinthians 9:8

QUOTE OF THE MONTH

"I needed assurance from God that He would be with me when I was about to graduate from college, get married six weeks later and then leave with my minister husband to work in Harlem, New York. He gave me that assurance in 2 Corinthians 9:8

*The Lord proved to me over and over that His grace and favor are plentiful. He gave me wisdom and love as I sought to help young people handle the problems of daily living in the midst of poverty. As a result, many found that God is able to help them
"abound in every good work".*

Perhaps as you read the "all's" of God in 2 Corinthians 9:8, you might think of some circumstances in your life that seem insurmountable. It's true that sometimes simple, everyday things can loom so large that you feel caught up in a maze with no exit. In times like these, remember: God is able!"
